

Career of the Week

Fashion Designer

What do we do?*

We design clothing and fashion ranges. We also create unique fashions for people to wear. We reinvent old styles by designing new types of clothing.

Subjects & Route*

A great job if you love Art and Design. There are no fixed education requirements to be a fashion designer. But, most designers have a bachelor's degree in fashion design.

Another option is to study fashion more generally. These courses give you the chance to put together a portfolio. This is a sample of your best work. It showcases your talent to employers.

Other useful subjects include:

- fashion communication
- textiles
- marketing/business

Jobs*

This job is in HIGH demand in Northern Ireland,

Average UK Salary:* £22,000- £40,000

- Core Tasks:
- ✓ Research trends in fashion
 - ✓ Produce detailed drawings of your ideas
 - ✓ Calculate how much material is needed
 - ✓ Envision new outfits and clothing

work hard, be kind and amazing things will happen

*Information provided by LMI for all, careeraz.cascaid and Xello